In 1964 Coach Charles G. "Lefty" Driesell led the Davidson Wildcats to a tenth place National Ranking and during the next five years added three more top ten teams including a third place finish in 1969.

Lefty then moved to Maryland and in 1972 the Terrapins were ranked eleventh in the nation with their best record in 49 years of Intercollegiate competition. The next three years saw Lefty add three more Top Ten teams at Maryland and no active coach has had more teams ranked in the top ten than the dynamic Terp mentor.

During the 1971-72 season, while the Terrapins were enroute to the National Invitational Tournament Championship, Lefty sopped off in Durham, North Carolina at every opportunity, but it was not the nostalgia of his Intercollegiate days at Duke that lured him back.

A young lefthanded Tennis player and Basketball Star at Hillside high had caught the eye of Lefty and he embarked on an intensive campaign to get the outstanding student-athlete to attend the University of Maryland.

John Lucas did select the University to continue his education and athletic career and was an instant success. Many of those following Lucas during his high school career predicted stardom for Lucas but in Tennis more than Basketball.

Only Coach Driesell predicted great success for Lucas and only Lefty felt he would become a regular for the Terps as a freshman.

Lefty Driesell - John Lucas

INSTANT STAR

Lucas was not only a success but an instant star. He started on the point as a freshman, and was runner-up for Outstanding Player of ACC Tournament honors in his first appearance. In seven ACC Tournament games and five NCAA Tournament games he has failed to top 20 points only twice and in those two scored 18 and 19 points. He has been named to the All-Tournament team in every Tournament he has played in and added the Outstanding Player Honors in the World Cup Games in Puerto Rico. He led all scorers in the Eighth Intercontinental Cup Games in Mexico City, won by the Terps, with a 27.6 average.

Lucas has reigned as the ACC Singles Champion in Tennis, teamed up with Fred Winckelmann as the Conference Doubles Champion and Eastern Intercollegiate Doubles Champion, twice won the Eastern Intercollegiate Singles Championship.

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICAN

Lucas, a 1975 Consensus All American, has never played on a team that was not ranked in the Top Ten, with the Terps ranked Eighth, Fourth and Fifth, in his three years.

During the same period Lefty has been accorded ACC Coach of the Year honors and has achieved his record of 300 coaching wins in just 15 years along with the seven Top Ten teams. Lefty enters the 1975-76 season as one of the top three coaches in the nation with a winning percentage of .728 for his 412 games as ranked by Elmore "Scoop" Hudgins of the Southeastern Conference.

Every player Lefty has recruited at Maryland has played on a Nationally Ranked team before he graduated and every player on this team with the exception of the freshmen have never played on a team that was not ranked in the top ten. The freshmen can even claim some distinction as they have contributed to the preseason rankings that find the Terps placed third in most of the early publications.

CHARLES G. "LEFTY" DRIESELL

A. C. C. COACH OF THE YEAR

District 3 Coach of the Year — Coach and Athlete Regional Coach of the Year

Coaching basketball is a way of life for Charles G. "Lefty" Driesell and no one works harder at his profession than the dynamic Terp mentor. He ranks as one of the most successful men in his profession, one of the winningest active major college coaches in the nation and no active coach has had more teams ranked among the nation's top ten.

Lefty is known and recognized by basketball fans and players throughout the nation. He is loved by many and hated by many but all respect him for what he has accomplished over the years.

Few coaches ever produce a Rhodes scholar. Lefty has coached two. Charles "Tom McMillen is currently a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford and Danny Carrell was a Rhodes Scholar from Davidson in 1963.

While Lefty has been extremely successful in developing winning basketball programs even more importantly he ranks as the most successful in producing outstanding young men who also excel in their future endeavors.

There are numerous coaches, attorneys, doctors and other outstanding professional men who benefited from their association with Lefty. Len Elmore became an instant millionaire upon graduation from Maryland and when Moses Malone indicated his intentions to join the professional ranks Lefty made sure the youngster obtained the security from the professionals he deserved. McMillen while continuing his studies at Oxford is also playing for Buffalo in the NBA.

Assistant coaches as well as players benefit from their association with Lefty as he has contributed more than his share of assistants to head coaching positions throughout the nation.

While his life revolves around the basketball court the Terp mentor contributes greatly to the University community, the athletes, and his associates through his active participation in the academic life of the University, the charitable organizations of the community, and the church. He is a father away from home for his athletes. Seldom is an awards ceremony held anywhere in the Washington Metropolitan Area, on any level of competition, that a Maryland coach, player or both is not present.

Over the years Lefty has gained a reputation as a superior recruiter and he has earned the reputation. Such a reputation does not come easy. First he recruits the top basketball players in the nation. Second he produces the finest college graduates in the nation. Such a reputation and continued recruiting successes could not be achieved without dedication to the youngsters and their future as well as their basketball talents. Those that join the Maryland program know that they will benefit from excellent coaching, but more importantly, know they will leave the University with a bright future ahead of them and prepared for that future. The Maryland players are known and respected by the press and news media throughout the nation for their outstanding post-game interviews. Their outstanding ability to converse with the media in an intelligent and relaxed manner is another of the attributes they gain from Lefty.

The Terp coach is always in close touch with his athletes, their professors and family. He often knows where they need help before they realize it themselves. The athletes are always welcome and often found in his home along with assistant coaches and their wives.

Lefty has always been a winner. While in grammar school, Granby, he was a manager for the high school athletic teams and became the youngest student ever to receive a varsity letter when he was awarded one in the fourth grade.

While at Duke University he was a Dean's List student and received his B.A. in Education. He later received his Master's in Education from William & Mary College where he was a member of Kappa Delta Pi Honorary Fraternity.

Lefty started his coaching career as a Junior Varsity Coach at Granby High School in Norfolk, Virginia (his hometown) and continued on to become the best in his profession, in the history of the state, with 59 consecutive wins at nearby Newport News High School.

He then accepted the challenge of collegiate coaching and took over a dormant basketball program at Davidson College. His coaching ability at the collegiate level was immediately evident as with the talent on hand, he recorded the best record Davidson basketball had achieved in five years and in only his second year led the Wildcats to their first winning season in 13 years. In only his third season Davidson had recorded its first 20-victory season in 54 years of competition and had achieved national prominence.

After leading Davidson to six 20-victory seasons (4 teams in top ten) and a 27-3 record in 1969 Lefty accepted the challenge of another building program and moved on to College Park, Maryland.

The Terrapins were also in the doldrums suffering through three consecutive losing seasons. During 46 years of competition Maryland had achieved only two 20-victory seasons and the last of those came in 1958.

Again Lefty transformed a loser into a winner, taking the talent on hand and recording 13-13 and 14-12 seasons in his first two years. Prior to his arrival the Terps had not won more than eight games in two years.

In only his third season the Terrapins had shocked the basketball world with a 27-5 record and a National Invitational Tournament Championship. He followed that with a 23-7 record and a berth in the NCAA Eastern Regional Finals and then a 23-5 season with third or fourth place national ranking depending on which poll or publication you follow.

Last Spring the Terps finished 24-5 with a berth in the NCAA Midwest Regional Finals and ranked fifth in the nation while establishing an All-Time NCAA record for Field Goal Accuracy hitting .547 percent of their shots.

Only a 103-100 overtime loss to NCAA Champion North Carolina State in the finals of the 1974 ACC Tournament prevented Lefty from achieving his goal of each season, the National Championship.

Statistics verify the fact that Lefty is a superior coach. Rebounding, free throw shooting, superior field goal percentages, a fast break offense and man-to-man defense are all areas of the game that Lefty stresses along with conditioning and his teams have excelled at each.

In 15 years of coaching at the collegiate level he has never had a team that was out-rebounded, and his last 14 teams have hit better than 70 percent of their free throws.

As is typical with Lefty Driesell coached teams, his last two teams at Maryland were nationally ranked in scoring, margin of victory, rebounding and field goal percentage. While establishing the NCAA record the Terps became the sixth Driesell coached team to achieve the 50 percent mark in field goal percentage. While establishing a Maryland record for scoring with a 89.9 average per game last year the Terps became Lefty's eighth team to score over 80 points a game and the tenth to win over 20 games in a season. It was his seventh team to rank among the top ten and another Maryland team, 1972, ranked eleventh.

Lefty stresses the man-to-man defense, feeling that in order to be a well rounded basketball player, in order for a team to win a national championship and in order for a team to utilize all of its natural talent it is necessary to play the game man-to-man.

Basketball, especially in the Washington area, has benefited from the hard work, dedication to the game and the success of Driesell as everyone strives to keep up with the Terp mentor.

He leaves nothing to chance, studying film hours at a time and is never caught without a projector at home or away. He supervises every phase of the program from the equipment to ticket sales and the athletes' meals in addition to keeping close check on their classroom work.

All of this has contributed to Lefty winning 300 basketball games in just 15 years for the third best winning percentage in the nation .728. He has won 124 games in just six years at Maryland while prior to his arrival it took the Terps 10 years to win 100 games.

Even when Lefty is taking one of his short vacations he is where the action is. On July 12 of 1973 while surf fishing at Bethany Beach, Delaware around midnight Lefty was credited with helping save the lives of at least 10 children and several adults from burning buildings in a townhouse complex near the beach. As a result of this Lefty was honored with the NCAA Award of Valor, becoming the first coach to receive this award.

Lefty, his attractive wife Joyce and their children Patty, Pam, Carolyn and Charles are members of the Colesville Presbyterian Church and when traveling Lefty may be found every Sunday at the nearest church to the motel where he is staying. Many of the members of the team accompany him to services on the road. Lefty was born on Christmas day 1931.

He is a member of the Branch Rickey Associated Fellowship of Christian Athletes, a member of the Beta Gamma Sigma Honoary at Maryland and is listed in Marquis' Who's Who in the South and the Directory of International Biography.

Driesell in Hero's Role

Coach Driesell receives NCAA Honor from NCAA Secretary-Treasurer Richard Koenig for his life saving efforts.

Lefty Driesell, Maryland's flamboyant basketball coach, earned a hero's label on the night of July 12-13, 1974 when he and two fishing companions saved at least 10 children from a fire which raged through four townhouses at Bethany Beach, Delaware.

"Let's face it, Driesell was a hero," said Samuel Meloy, a Prince George's County circuit court judge who was vacationing and witnessed the incident. "There were no injuries, and it was a miracle because the firemen didn't come for at least 30 minutes."

Driesell modestly tried to play down his role.

"Hey, man, don't build me up as any kind of hero," the Terps' 41-year-old coach begged. "All we did was try to get the kids out. It was just lucky that we were fishing right in front of the houses."

At least one resident of the burning houses didn't appreciate Driesell's valor at first, Meloy said. Not realizing that the house was ablaze, a woman ran outside screaming about an intruder after Driesell broke in the door.

Equal heorism was demonstrated by Driesell's companions: Paul Williamson, athletic director for Durham, North Carolina, high schools, and another man whose identity Driesell said he did not know.

The fire occurred in a subdivision about four miles from Rehoboth Beach where Driesell and his family were vacationing.

COACH DRIESELL'S OFFENSIVE PHILOSOPHY

My offensive philosophy as a junior high school coach, high school coach and college coach has always been the same. We run a pro oriented offense which features a fast break and strong inside game. We try to get the highest percentage shot possible and never take a shot at the basket from outside unless we have 3 to 4 people in position to go to the offensive boards.

Our first objective is to create a fast break situation on defense by 1) making our opponents turn the ball over, 2) getting a rebound and throwing the outlet pass quickly, 3) getting the ball in quickly after a made basket or free throw and advancing it up the court and getting an overload on transition. We have always been a fast breaking, high scoring, offensive team.

If we are not successful in scoring on our "fast break offense" after a steal, rebound, or basket then we will go to our set offense which has always been inside oriented and in the past we have primarily run a double low post offense. However, at times we have run a stack offense using three inside men as we did in 73–74 with Tom McMillen, Len Elmore, and Owen Brown or Tom Roy in the line up. Again it is my philosophy that the more shots that we get in the free throw lane area the higher percentage we will shoot and the more fouls we will force our opponent into committing. Therefore our offense is predicated to getting the ball to the big men inside and as you can see we have had four legitimate All-American pivot men in Fred Hetzel (Davidson 1963), Mike Maloy (Davidson 1970), Len Elmore (Maryland, 1974) and Tom McMillen (Maryland, 1974). However, if our opponents jam inside we must have excellent outside shooting wing men and point men. Dick Snyder (Davidson 1966) has been our all time leading scorer for 1 season average 27.8 points per game his senior year and John Lucas has been our all time leading point man averaging 20 points per game. Both of these men were also legitimate All-Americans.

Our philosophy has always been that you must get everyone involved in the offense and you must have good movement of the ball and again get as many high percentage shots as we can in the free throw lane area either with our fast break or double low post or stack offense.

Our offense has produced 5 teams that shot over 50% from the floor, 2 that shot 49% and one 48%.

We feel our offense is exciting, disciplined and similar to what our athletes will play in the pros.

COACH DRIESELL'S DEFENSIVE PHILOSOPHY

Throughout my coaching career as a junior varsity, high school and college coach I have always believed very strongly that I should teach my athletes to play hard nose man for man defense. This has always been our style of defense and if there is one thing that I strongly believe it is that your team is only as good as you are defensively. Our 1973-74 (ranked 4th in the nation) team for example held our opponents to a field goal percentage of 39.9 percent for the year. I think we were able to accomplish this because we carried out our philosophy on defense which is not to allow our opponents any shots in the free throw lane area and to force them to shoot outside with pressure on them and to do an excellent job of blocking out and not allow any second shots.

We like to overplay our man one pass from the ball and force our opponents out of their offensive patterns. We do a lot of sagging and helping when we are two passes from the ball. We have had some great defensive centers such as Len Elmore, Mike Maloy and Fred Hetzel who have done an excellent job of blocking shots and protecting the basket for us. We have also had some great defensive forwards such as Dick Snyder, who during his senior year held three opponents who were averaging over 20 points a game to 1 point, 2 points, and 0 points.

We believe that we must dictate to the offensive man and team and not let them do what they want to do. However, our philosophy is that if a players man scores a lay up on him, it is his fault and responsibility. However, if he shoots outside and we have pressure on him and he makes the basket it is my (coaches) fault and responsibility. We like to look at our shot charts at the end of a ball game and see how few layups and shots in the free throw lane area that we have allowed our opponents. Normally, if we do not give many shots or baskets inside we will come out on top.

In order to have diversity we will also play a half court trap defense that we call our "Golash" defense and we will also play some type of zone each year for opponents that we feel are particularly weak against zones or for use at the end of a close ball game.

We will also have full court man for man and zone presses in case we fall behind and feel that we must press in order to catch up. However, our money defense is our straight man for man defense and our "top ten" teams in the past have been very tough and aggressive on defense.

Another strong reason for using a man for man defense is because we want to prepare our athletes for professional basketball.

ASSISTANT COACH

JOE HARRINGTON

Joe Harrington has been an important part of Maryland basketball for the past twelve years. While an All-American at Morse High in Bath, Maine he selected the University to continue his education while also playing basketball in the highly competitive Atlantic Coast Conference. During his playing career he served as Co-Captain of the Terps and was drafted by the World Champion Boston Celtics upon graduation.

When Lefty Driesell was named Coach of the Terrapins he hired Joe as an assistant, and the handsome Terp has developed into one of the finest young assistants in the nation. "Joe has been with me since my first day at Maryland and is extremely capable," says Coach Driesell. "With his experience in all phases of the Maryland program, I believe he has an excellent future in the coaching profession."

Harrington, who played in the pre-Driesell era, has made many contributions towards establishing a tradition of winning and nationally ranked teams.

Coach Harrington is married to the former Ann Schopfer, a graduate of the University of Maryland and also the University of Maryland Law School.

ASSISTANT COACH

DAVE PRITCHETT

Dave Pritchett joined Coach Driesell at the University of Maryland as one of the most sought after assistant coaches in the nation.

Every program Pritchett has ever been associated with moved to the top with 20 game winning seasons within two years after his arrival on the scene. He is widely known and respected for his organizational ability and rapport with the players and staff.

Coach Pritchett came to Maryland from Boston College where he served as the top varsity assistant for two years. Before Boston College, he served as an assistant at Bluefield State College and Virginia Commonwealth University. His Bluefield State freshmen earned the distinction of being the only undefeated team in its history.

"The most forming day in my life was when Coach Driesell called and gave me a chance to be associated with him at the University of Maryland," says Pritchett. "He without question possesses the finest basketball mind in the game today and is the outstanding basketball man of our times. I have always wanted to study under such a person, who through his thousands of hours of studying films and constant clinic study is so very talented on the floor."

Coach Pritchett and his wife Judith Ann have three sons Roger, David, and Charles.

ASSISTANT COACH

HOWARD WHITE

Howard White, a native of Hampton, Virginia, was one of Coach Lefty Driesell's first recruits at the University of Maryland and it was only fitting that he should stay on and serve as an assistant coach to the Terp mentor.

One of the finest guards to ever play at Maryland was a student of the game as a player and this has contributed greatly to his success as a coach.

He works with some of the finest guards in the nation and is extremely valuable to the Maryland basketball program both on and off the court.

He has been called "one of the best rising young coaches in the profession" and credits Coach Driesell for his success both as a player and coach.

"My experience under Coach Driesell will be invaluable to my future endeavors whatever they may be," says White. "My years here at Maryland have enlightened my life and shed a great deal of worldiness on basketball and on life itself."

THE DRIESELL ERA AT MARYLAND

When Lefty Driesell took over the basketball program at the University of Maryland the Terrapins had suffered through two consecutive eight-victory seasons and had won only 123 games in 11 years. The record for the 11 year period was 123-47.

Lefty is entering his seventh season with a 124-47 record and his last four teams have won 23 or more games.

The Terps broke even at 13-13 in his first season and were 14-12 in his second year. Consecutive 20-victory seasons of 27-5, 23-7, 23-5 and 24-5 followed.

In addition to establishing records on the court the Terps have broken all attendance records with capacity crowds commonplace at Cole Field House.

Under Driesell's tutelage the Terps have won a National Championship, the National Invitational Tournament, gained the finals of the NCAA Eastern Regionals and the NCAA Midwest Regionals with three consecutive teams ranked among the Nation's top ten.

As a freshman, he was named second team All ACC and was a member of the All Freshmen All American team. He led the Terrapins in assists last year with 134, many coming on passes that both thrilled and dazzled the fans and the opponents. Brad finished the 74-75 season with a 12.6 scoring average. Three times during the season he topped the twenty point mark with performances of 20 (Clemson), 22 (Duquesne) and a career high of 24 points against Virginia. DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

JIM KEHOE

Jim Kehoe's University of Maryland athletic program continues to improve with each year. The Terps have increased their winning percentage each year since the former Track Coach took over the program on July 1, 1969, and this past season seven of the 21 varsity sports he administers ranked among the top 20 in the nation.

The Terps also captured the Carmichael Cup, symbolic of overall supremacy in the Atlantic Coast Conference in Men's sports, for the second consecutive year and ninth time in the 14 years it has been presented.

In overall, head-to-head competition the Terrapins won 209 of 298 intercollegiate athletic contests during the 1974-75 season with the 13 men's teams recording a 123-41-5 record and the eight Women's sports compiling an 86-39-4 record.

His six years as Terrapin AD have been exciting, to say the least. The Terps have become National Powers in basketball, football and lacrosse completing the past season as National Champions in Lacrosse, ranked fifth in basketball and thirteenth in football.

It was Kehoe who lured Coach Lefty Driesell to Maryland to become the Terp basketball coach and then obtained the services of Jerry Claiborne to guide the Terrapin football fortunes. He also brought Bud Beardmore back to Maryland to take charge of the lacrosse program.

The combined record of basketball, football and lacrosse in 1968-69, the year prior to Kehoe's taking over, was 17-30. The past two years the same three sports recorded a cumulative 39-11 and 41-11 record with national rankings in all three.

In addition Kehoe is directing one of the few athletic programs in the nation that is not operating at a deficit yet continuous improvement in the physical facilities and caliber of the teams is evident.

He lured his former track teammate, Col. Tom Fields, into retirement from the Marine Corps to direct the Maryland Educational Foundation and instituted a drive to revamp the image of Maryland athletics. This past year the Maryland Educational Foundation contributed $531,000 for the support of the Maryland athletic scholarship program.

The athletic image has benefited not only from winning but from one of the finest radio and television networks in the nation. Nearly a million fans watched the Terps in person last year and many more benefited from national telecasts in both football and basketball. In addition some 40 stations carry the football and basketball games as compared to only one station in 1969.

During his tenure as AD the Terps have twice won the NCAA Championship in Lacrosse and twice finished as the runner-up for the National title, won the National Invitational Basketball Tournament, gained the finals of the NCAA Eastern and Midwestern Regional basketball tournaments and the football team has been to three consecutive Bowl games.

Within the ACC the Terps have won 26 of 74 Championships under Kehoe's direction as compared to 15 for runner-up North Carolina. Maryland has now captured 121 titles since the ACC was formed in 1953, more than double the 56 by North Carolina to rank second.

As Maryland Track Coach Kehoe saw his teams capture the ACC Indoor and Outdoor Championships in all but one year of the ACC's existence. He won the first and last 14 in both and in addition captured eight Cross Country titles including his last six as a coach.

After taking over as Track and Cross Country Coach in 1946 his teams won a total of 48 Southern and ACC team titles. In dual meet competition his teams were undefeated for his last nine years and the track team had a winning streak of 27 straight victories and the cross country team 29 at his retirement.

Maryland won the IC4A track titles in 1965-1966 and 1969 to claim Eastern track supremacy.

Perhaps his greater moment as a coach was reserved for his final season as track coach. In his final meet, by the margin of a single point, Maryland defeated heavily favored Villanova for the IC4A outdoor championship. Kehoe declared this his "greatest track victory" during his career as a coach.

A native of Bel Air, Maryland, where he starred in several sports, Kehoe entered Maryland in 1936 and concentrated on track and cross country. He lettered in all three of his varsity seasons, was undefeated in dual meet competition and won several Southern Conference titles in indoor and outdoor competition. He also established indoor and outdoor records in the 880 yard and two mile runs.

While a student at Maryland he was president of the Men's League, and a member of Omicron Delta Kappa National Honorary Fraternity.

In addition to coaching at Maryland he served as an Associate Professor of Physical Education and Director of Intramural Athletics. He holds an Honorary Doctor's degree from Steed College in Tennessee.

During World War II he served as an officer with the 81st Infantry Division in the Pacific, rising from the rank of private to Lieutenant Colonel upon retirement. He participated in the Philippine Islands and Central Pacific Campaigns and was awarded the Bronze Star, American Service Medal, Asiatic Pacific Medal, Victory Medal and Philippine Liberation Medal.

Kehoe is married to the former Barbara Riggs England, a 1943 Maryland graduate. The Kehoes have four children: daughters Courtney Ann, Barbara Sue and Mary Lou and a son Jim. Courtney Ann and Jim are graduates of the University.

Alfred J. Hanlon is concerned primarily with scheduling, team travel, personnel policies and general office administration. He has been with the Athletic Department since 1969, when he retired from the U.S. Air Force with the rank of colonel after directing the Maryland AFROTC program for two years.

CHAIRMAN, THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

First appointed to the athletic council in 1951, Dr. Faber is the University's representative to the Atlantic Coast Conference. He recently completed his second term as President of the ACC having also served in 1969-70.

For 36 years Dr. Faber served as lacrosse coach at the University. During that time the accomplishments of his teams secured a place for him as one of the greatest names in Maryland athletic history. He won 276 games sugering only 75 losses with two ties. Five times his Terps were undisputed national champions and two other times they shared that honor with another school.

A professor in the microbiology department, the University is fortunate to have such a man as its Faculty Chairman of Athletics.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR MARYLAND EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

Tom Fields John Gilmore

When Jim Kehoe assumed the duties as Director of Athletics at the University of Maryland he realized that financial stability was absolutely necessary to achieve the goals he set for Maryland athletics.

Kehoe has achieved many of those goals and financial stability is one of them. The University athletic department was one of only 10 percent in the nation that has operated without a deficit the past two years and Tom Fields had a big hand in achieving that goal.

When Kehoe lured Col. Fields into retirement from the Marine Corps, contributions to the Maryland Educational Foundation were minimal. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1970 the contributions totaled approximately $30,000.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1975, contributions totaled $531,000 up from the $386,000 the previous year.

During the past year the Terrapin Club renewed 96 percent of their contributors and the membership now stands at 1,400, quite a jump from the 132 original members.

Of the 1,400 members, nine are life members ($10,000 contribution), 164 are Diamondback members ($1,000 annual contribution and 510 are Gold members ($500 annual contribution).

The contributions have not only enabled the University's self-sustaining program to remain just above the break even point but enabled the Terrapins to regain their stature as the overall champions of the Atlantic Coast Conference with National prestige in just about every sport.

Fields, a former Maryland All-American distance runner and teammate of Kehoe's, took over his duties at Maryland in 1970 and his success has followed the pattern of his life.

During World War II he served in combat in Guadalcanal, Vella Lavella, Bougainville and Iwo Jima. He also served in Korea and Vietnam and at the time of his retirement from the Corps, he was the Deputy Director of Information—Headquarters Marine Corps.

DR. WILSON H. ELKINS

PRESIDENT
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

This year Dr. Elkins completed his twenty-first year at the University as its twenty-first president. He is chief executive officer of the Board of Regents and head of the growing five-campus system which includes University College and its world-wide program of education.

During his period in office, President Elkins has seen the University grow from an annual enrollment of 8,500 students to more than 70,000. The total operating budget which was $23 million in 1954 is more than $225 million this year.

In addition to degrees from the University of Texas, Dr. Elkins earned his B.Litt and Ph.D. degrees at Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar.

Long a sports enthusiast and an avid golfer, Maryland's President was elected to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1963 and was the recipient of the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the University of Texas in 1972. While an undergraduate there he earned eight varsity letters in football, basketball, and track.

Dr. Elkins began his professional career as a history instructor before serving as President of San Angelo Junior College and Texas Western College (the University of Texas at El Paso).

He is a member of the Southern Regional Education Board and past president of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges, the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and the Southern University Conference.

DR. ROBERT L. GLUCKSTERN

CHANCELLOR
COLLEGE PARK CAMPUS

Robert L. Gluckstern is a distinguished physicist and administrator. On July 1, 1975, he became the College Park Campus' second chancellor.

Educated at MIT and the City College of New York, he spent fourteen years on the Yale University physics faculty. In 1964, he moved from Yale to the University of Massachusetts at Amherst as professor and head of the physics and astronomy department. Under his leadership, the department grew from 14 to 52 faculty members and 25 to 100 graduate students, and increased federal support from $30,000 to $950,000 a year.

He became associate provost of the University of Massachusetts in 1969, vice chancellor for academic affairs and provost in 1970.

Dr. Gluckstern participated in the design of a number of high energy particle accelerators at Brookhaven, Los Alamos, Lawrence Radiation and National Accelerator Laboratories and advised on the theoretical problems involved in the construction of these highly sophisticated giant machines. (High energy particle accelerators are used by physicists to discover the constituent particles of the nucleus of the atom and to understand the nature and role of these particles.)

The new chancellor has remained active in teaching and will teach a general physics course to undergraduate students this fall.

Dr. Gluckstern, who is 51, was born in Atlantic City, New Jersey. He is married to the former Norma Block. The Gluckstern's have three children.
